Renowned Palestinian artist Khalil Rabah to hold exhibition in Madrid

Feb 20 Khalil Rabah will be exhibiting three projects in Casa Árabe, joining the celebration of the 35th anniversary of ARCO, the International Contemporary Art Fair.

Three art projects by renowned Palestinian artist Khalil Rabah will be displayed in an exhibition in Madrid from 18 February until 15 May.

The exhibition, hosted by Casa Árabe (Arabian House) in Madrid, is part of celebrations marking the 35th anniversary of the International Contemporary Art Fair.

The three projects are the best known art works by Rabah: "The Palestinian Museum of Natural History and Humankind", "United States of Palestine A Made Representation."

Born in Jerusalem in 1961, Khalil Rabah is considered as one of the most important Arab artists on the international scene. He lives and works between
